

Mobile Text Message Policy for Registration Attendees

Introduction: Welcome to IFT FIRST. As part of your registration process, we would like to inform you about our mobile text message policy. By agreeing to this policy, you consent to receive text messages related to the event.

Messaging Purpose: Text messages will be sent for the following purposes:

1. Event updates and announcements.
2. Important information regarding schedule changes or cancellations.
3. Special offers, promotions, or relevant information from event sponsors/partners.
4. Registration updates for future IFT FIRST Events.
5. Emergency Management Information.

Opting In: By providing your mobile number during registration, you are opting in to receive text messages. Standard messaging rates may apply depending on your mobile carrier plan.

Opting Out: You have the right to opt-out of receiving text messages at any time. To stop receiving messages, reply with "STOP" to any message you receive or contact [help@ift.org].

Frequency of Messages: We aim to keep the number of messages to a minimum and only send essential information. However, you may receive periodic updates leading up to and during the event.

Data and Privacy: Your privacy is important to us. We will not share your mobile number with third parties without your explicit consent. For more details, please refer to our privacy policy [IFT Privacy Policy - IFT.org].

Message and Data Rates: Message and data rates may apply, depending on your mobile carrier plan. Please check with your carrier for details.

Support: If you experience any issues or have questions regarding our text message policy, please contact [help@ift.org].

Agreement: By agreeing to this mobile text message policy, you acknowledge that you have read and understood the terms outlined above.
